

Most of the cable channels I get are not entertaining or are just garbage. There are only a dozen or so channels that I'd like to receive, and would gladly pay for only those - not the "packages" that Cox Communications sells now. By the way, just FYI, did you know that Cox Communications, Inc is going private (buying back all of its stock)? Think about it.